

Key

KEY

John
Phillip

DR. JOHN KEY

Dr. Key studied medicine with Dr. Gustavus Brown and thus met his wife. When Dr. Brown discovered the attachment that had been formed between the young student and his daughter he wrote to Mr. Philip Key, Sr., that under the circumstances he had better take his son home again. It is claimed that Dr. Key graduated as an M. D. from the University of Edinburgh, but he is not reported in the Alumni Catalogue. His practice appears to have been lucrative, as he left a good estate.

John Key D. 1755 married first Cecelia Brown, second Elizabeth Bond.

Issue by first marriage; among others;
Philip B. 1750, D. 1820

DR. JOHN KEY

Dr. Key studied medicine with Dr. Gustavus Brown and thus met his wife. When Dr. Brown discovered the attachment that had been formed between the young student and his daughter he wrote to Mr. Philip Key, Sr., that under the circumstances he had better take his son home again. It is claimed that Dr. Key graduated as an M. D. from the University of Edinburgh, but he is not reported in the Alumni Catalogue. His practice appears to have been lucrative, as he left a good estate.

John Key D. 1755 married first Cecelia Brown, second Elizabeth Bond.

Issue by first marriage; among others;
Philip B. 1750, D. 1820

Philip

HON. PHILIP KEY

Hon. Philip Key of "Bushwood Lodge" St. Mary's County, Md. was, as will states, "son of Richard and Mary Key, born in the parish of St. Paul, Convent Garden, London, Eng., ye 25th of March 1696. He died Maryland 1764.

(Interesting discussion of English ancestry and family Arms.)

He married (1) Susanna Gardiner, (11) Theodosia Bond.

Hon. Philip Key was educated in the Temple, came young to the Colonis and settled in St. Marys County, Md., in whose provincial courts he pracyiced his profession. He was a man of eminent abilities. He died possessed of a large landed estate and was buried in the family vault Chaptico Church? K. and Q. Parish the site of which and burial was given by him. It is interesting to state that that so highly was Mr. Key honored while High Sheriff that the service did not begin until his arrival. He was a member of the Maryland Assembly from Somerset County until 1755.

Issue by first marriage, among others:

John B. circa 1730; D. Aug. 1755

married

Cecelia Brown, daughter of Dr. Gustawas Brown.

Virginia Genealogies by Hayden. Page 167-69

HON. PHILIP KEY

Hon. Philip Key of "Bushwood Lodge" St. Mary's County, Md. was, as will states, "son of Richard and Mary Key, born in the parish of St. Paul, Convent Garden, London, Eng., ye 26th of March 1696. He died Maryland 1764.

(Interesting discussion of English ancestry and family Arms.)

He married (I) Susanna Gardiner, (II) Theodosia Bond. Hon. Philip Key was educated in the Temple, came young to the Colonis and settled in St. Mary's County, Md., in whose provincial courts he pracyiced his profession. He was a man of eminent abilities. He died possessed of a large landed estate and was buried in the family vault Chaptico Church? K. and C. Parish the site of which and burial was given by him. It is interesting to state that that so highly was Mr. Key honored while High Sheriff that the service did not begin until his arrival. He was a member of the Maryland Assembly from Somerset County until 1755.

Issue by first marriage, among others:

John B. circa 1730; D. Aug. 1755

married

Cecelia Brown, daughter of Dr. Gustavus Brown.

Virginia Genealogies by Haysen. Page 167-68

HON. PHILIP KEY

Hon. Philip Key of "Tudor Hall", Batten Bay, born St. Mary's County, Md., 1750; died Jan. 4, 1820; married (1) by Rev. James Stephens, March 14, 1779, Rebecca Jowles Sothoron, daughter of Zacharia and Margaret Bond of St. Mary's County, Md. (11) he married Sophia Hall.

Issue by first marriage, among others:

Cecelia Brown, b. Sept. 5, 1784 D. ----- married Col. Ashton, Mayor of Washington, D.C.

Mr. Key was educated in London, whither he went in 1767 to prepare himself to be a lawyer. He was presented at the Court of St James at 19 years of age, and was counted one of the handsomest men of his day. He was a member of the Committee of Safety, St. Mary's County, Nov. 18, 1774; for several years member of the Maryland Assembly; Speaker of the House two terms; member U. S. Congress Oct. 24, 1791 to March 2, 1793; was offered a place in President Monroe's Cabinet, also the office of the Governor of Maryland when that official was appointed by the Electoral College, but he declined both honors.

Virginia Genealogies, page 182 and 183.

Men of Mark in Virginia. Vol. 5, page 422.

Todd, Everard Moore, merchant and soldier was born Dec. 5, 1827 at "Old Town" farm near Smithfield, Isle of Wight County. His father John Robinson Todd, farmer served in the war of 1812, and was noted for his strong convictions for right and justice, traits which he passed on to his son. His mother, Elizabeth Armistead Todd, was a good and true woman, whose influence for good upon his character was marked.

He is descended from John and Angelina Todd, who were residents of Southampton Parish, Bermuda Islands. Their son Captain Mallory Todd, founder of the Virginia family, and grandfather of Everard Moore Todd, ran away from home when a boy and went to sea, afterwards owning vessels and trading with the colonies, which led to his settling in Virginia, a few years past the middle of the eighteenth century. The colonial house built by him in Smithfield, and occupied by him until his death in 1817 is still owned and occupied by his descendants. He first married Angelina Mallory, who died after giving birth to four children all of whom died; then Ann Robinson of the Robinson Moore family of York County, etc.